

Year 6 Spellings – Term 2 – a guide to the words/patterns we will be looking at in our spelling lessons this term for you to practise at home.

WC 30.10.23	w/b 6.11.23	w/b 13.11.23	w/b 20.11.23	w/b 27.11.23	w/b 4.12.23	w/b 11.12.23
Understand rules for applying suffixes to root words ending in -fer	Understand helpful conventions that apply when adding the suffixes spelt -cial or -tial, -cially or -tially	Understand helpful conventions that apply when adding the suffixes -able / -ably and -ible / -ibly	Understand helpful conventions that apply when adding the suffixes that sound like spelt -cious and -tious	To spell words with the 'ee' sound, spelt ei after c	Understand helpful conventions that apply when adding the suffixes -ant / -ent, -ance / -ence, -ancy / -ency	Explore words with the ending -tion, -sion, -ssion, -cian
refer referring referrer referral reference referee prefer preferring preferred preference infer inferring inference offering offered transfer transferring transferred transference	special, specially, essential, essentially, initial, initially, official, officially confidential, confidentially, facial, facially, artificial, artificially, financial, financially, commercial, commercially provincial, crucial, crucially, residential, residentially,	understandable, suitable, breathable, enjoyable, believable, believably reasonable, reasonably possible, possibly, horrible, horribly. terrible, terribly, visible, lockable, comfortable, comfortably, considerable, considerably, flexible, flexibly possible, sensible, flexible, reliable, excitable, excitably, changeable, noticeable, tolerable, irritable, applicable, divisible,	conscious, disastrous, marvellous, various, mischievous, vicious, precious, conscious, delicious, malicious, suspicious, ambitious, cautious, fictitious, infectious, nutritious, gracious, spacious, malicious, precious, conscious, delicious, anxious, serious	reign, conceive, weight veil, receipt, neighbour, reins, sleigh, receive, height, neither, perceived, protein, caffeine, ceiling, deceit, seize, deceiving, eight, either	Independent, decent, confidence, hesitancy, sentence, resistance, tolerance, obedient, experience, assistance, insistent, persistent, difference, innocent, observant, existence, substance, excellent, emergency, preference, important, recent, frequency, nuisance, relevant, apparent, hindrance, accident, convenience, sufficient,	station, fiction, motion, national, section, invention, injection, action, hesitation, completion, mention, position, question, expansion, extension, comprehension, tension, occasion, expression, discussion confession, profession, session, permission, admission, possession, musician, electrician, magician, politician, mathematician.

Please log on to Google Classrooms to see additional activities to help support your child with the above spelling objectives at home.